

Boarding Tutor

We currently have a vacancies for Boarding Tutors to join Bishopstrow College starting in March 2025 and also in June 2025.

We are looking for well rounded and enthusiastic individuals, who can offer a range of skills in areas such as sports and activities (including art, drama etc.). The position is be orientated to the strengths and interests of the candidates wherever possible and designed to help to foster their career progression. The role offers both a rich insight into life at a boarding school as well as opportunities to develop and learn core pastoral skills and skills in planning and delivering activity sessions, and on occasion sports.

The role would suit those considering a future career in education, or working with children, or candidates with previous experience of teaching and/or caring for children. The role offers variety and candidates should be flexible and able to deal with changes in circumstances, and be able to take initiative. Candidates should genuinely enjoy working with children, be energetic, have excellent communication skills and be able to work as part of a team. Accommodation and all meals are provided during term time. Ideally the candidate should hold a full UK driving licence.

Due to the nature of the role and the working hours required, this is a residential post, and the the Boarding Tutor will be required to live in one of our boarding houses, or in shared accommodation with other members of the Boarding team.

Hours

5 days and 2 consecutive days off per week.

Salary

Salary of £18K for a 4 term year (44 weeks) including an end of contract payment, plus free accommodation and free meals during term time
